Pathways

for the NEW D37
in a New Toastmasters Year!

Phyllis Kombol, DTM
Pathways *"PR"

 "Park Ranger"*

A couple years ago, my sister and I decided to go to South Mountain State Park to hike the High Shoals Waterfall trail. We stopped at the visitor center to chat with the Park Rangers and get a map. They said “That trail is only about a mile long, but it is strenuous.” Armed with our map and that information, we went to the trail and began on a flat area. “Not bad at all,” we thought. And then came the stairs, and more stairs, and a pause to catch our breath while we enjoyed watching the cascades. Several times, as we paused to catch our breath, we looked at each other and said, “They were right! This IS strenuous!” And then even more stairs! Up and up we climbed. Some people took a break along the way to fish in the river. And then there were even more stairs up! Finally we crossed the river and arrived, as advertised, at the observation platform with benches at the base of the lovely High Shoals Falls.

Paths and Core Competencies

The Toastmasters Pathways learning experience was developed around the five core competencies identified by the Board of Directors.

FIVE CORE COMPETENCIES

It is important to note that each member using Base Camp will have the opportunity to select from many electives to extend their learning. With the addition of electives, members have the flexibility to cover all core competencies within each path.

1. PUBLIC SPEAKING
2. INTERPERSONAL COMMUNICATION
3. STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP
4. MANAGEMENT
5. CONFIDENCE

Confidence is unique because it cannot be taught, but is gained in every path.

11 PATHS

The primary core competencies represented in each path are listed in order of emphasis next to the path name.

Path	Build	1	2	3	4	5

YOUR ASSIGNMENT

For all assignment details and requirements, review the Project Checklist.

Project Checklist

Purpose: The purpose of this project is to present a speech on any topic, receive feedback, and apply the feedback to a second speech.

Overview: Choose any topic for your first 5- to 7-minute speech. After your speech, carefully review your feedback. At a future club meeting, present a 5- to 7-minute speech in which you incorporate feedback from your first speech. You may choose to present the same speech again or a new speech. Your second speech should reflect some or all of the feedback from your first speech. Finally, after you have completed both speeches, serve as an evaluator at a club meeting and deliver constructive feedback about another member's presentation.

Use the tools like this Project Checklist to get an overview of the tasks you need to do

How to complete a LEVEL:

One step at a time

Level 1 (same for every Path) = 3 Projects

- Ice Breaker Project
  - 1 speech “The Ice Breaker”
- Evaluation and Feedback Project
  - “First” Speech –get feedback
  - “Second” Speech—apply the feedback received
  - Evaluator Speech—evaluate another member’s speech
- Researching and Presenting Project
  - 1 speech demonstrating research on a topic, distinguishing between fact/opinion sources, and citing sources
- Enter a Level Completion Approval Request

After all projects done in a level, the final step in that level is to request a level completion approval.

What happens when you put in a Level Completion Approval request

- Who gets the request?
  - How can you check where it is likely to go?
  - How can you be sure they got it?
  - What if you are a member of multiple clubs?
  - How do you decide which club “gets the credit”?
- What do they do?
- When should they do it?
  - Why?
- What else do they need to do so that the club “gets the DCP credit”?
