

Brian Crutchfield, DTM

Brian has been Public Relations Manager for District 37 for three years. He is also a past President and VP of PR for the Wells Fargo Stagecoach Speakers Uptown Charlotte club where he helped the club achieve Presidents Distinguished nine years in a row. He is also a charter member, club mentor, past President, Treasurer, and VPPR for the Wells Fargo Stagecoach Speakers Ballantyne club. Brian has served in the VPPR role for eight years.

Brian has been in Toastmasters since 2014 and achieved Distinguished Toastmaster in 2019 under the “old” program. Being a glutton for punishment, he is working on Pathways to earn his second DTM, starting with the Engaging Humor path.

Brian is originally from Richmond, Virginia, but has lived in Charlotte for 25 years. In his day job he is a Digital Marketing Program Manager at Wells Fargo, educating customers about how to avoid fraud and scams, and promoting the adoption of digital banking. He has been with Wells Fargo for over 32 years. His favorite weekend activity is floating on the lake in his boat and fishing. He is an avid gardener, crocheter, voracious reader, and loves telling stories and making people laugh.
