

Linda-Marie Miller is the First Runner-Up in the 2020 World Championship of Public Speaking. She is a Powerful and Inspirational Public Speaker, Certified Experiential Trainer, and ICF Certified Ontological Coach. She has spoken internationally in more than twenty countries on six continents.

Linda-Marie is an influential thought leader and trainer in the domain of leadership and public speaking. Her signature program, “Champions of Change” is a visionary leadership development program designed to transform participants into leaders in their lives, their organizations, their families, and their communities.

As an Ontological Coach, Linda-Marie has empowered hundreds of clients to live a life of no regrets, taking themselves to the highest level of living with purpose and passion.